

LEADERSHIP CORNER

Add these upcoming Builders Club administrator events to your calendars:

1. Designing a District Convention Workshop, Wednesday, March 27 at 7 p.m. ET. Register here. Presenting a workshop at your district convention is a smart club-building strategy. Join us to hear from fellow administrators and Kiwanis staff as we share tips and tools for building an engaging presentation that convinces Kiwanians to sponsor a Builders Club.

2. Office Hours for K-Kids & Builders Club District Administrators, Tuesday, May 7 at 7 p.m.ET. We're here to support you! Join us for District Administrator Office Hours. No need to register. Just use this link and drop in during our office hours to ask a question or share an issue with Kiwanis' Service Leadership Programs staff.

Remind your clubs that entries for Builders Club awards and contests and their Annual Achievement Report are due April 1. They can learn more on the Builders Club awards and contests webpage.

Encourage your Builders Club advisors to complete end-of-year member and advisor surveys. They take less than 10 minutes to complete and will be open on April 1 at the following links: Builders Club advisor end-of-year survey 2023-24 and Builders Club member end-of-year survey 2023-24 or through links on the Builders Club advisor webpage. Surveys will close May 15

KIDSGARDENING FOR SERVICE

Earth Day and spring are around the corner. It's a great time for gardening service projects! KidsGardening, a Kiwanis International partner, promotes the importance of gardening with youth. Learn about the organization's educational resources for hands-on gardening for students and families.

THE BEST WEEK OF THE YEAR!

We're excited to hear all about the awesome things your club did during Builders Club Week! Share a short paragraph (two to three sentences) detailing what you did each day of the week. Feel free to jazz it up with some photos too — just make sure you've got those signed photo releases handy. We can't wait to hear about the special moments your club created during the best week of the year!

CLUB SIZE MATTERS

Club size significantly impacts advisors' roles in developing leaders, managing meetings and executing activities. Emily Graf, a first-year Builders Club faculty advisor in Corinth, Texas, U.S., has learned a few useful things about running a small club of 18 members. Meanwhile, being an advisor to a large club of 50-150 members means focusing on solutions to different challenges. These tips can help.

ADVISOR REMINDERS

Check out these upcoming events and action items.

Apply to join the new Builders Club Faculty Advisor Council. It will meet during the 2024-25 service year.

Review the council description at buildersclub.org/advisors and link to the online council application form HERE. Applications are due by April 15.

Wrap Up & Prepare for Next Year, Wednesday, April 10, 7 p.m. ET. Register here. Get tips and share advice with other advisors about how to wrap up a service year. Also learn how to get ready for the new year with officer elections and planning.

Office Hours for K-Kids and Builders Club Advisors, Wednesday, May 1, 7-8 p.m. ET. We are here to support you! Drop in for a few minutes during our office hours to share an issue or ask a question to Kiwanis International staff. No registration needed — just click on this link during office hours.

Remember to add end-of-year member and advisor surveys to your April club activities. Share your thoughts about Builders Club, and your club will be entered for a chance to receive a US$25 Amazon gift card! Surveys will be open April 1 through May 15 and take less than 10 minutes to complete. Look for information about the surveys on the Builders Club advisor webpage or save the following links that will open on April 1: Builders Club

advisor end-of-year survey 2023-24 and Builders Club member end-of-year survey 2023-24.
